LOVE IS A LIE

Love is a lie that taunts and tortures,
Taking our hearts for its own reward
It lures us then leaves us to die
It rocks our soul with its sharpened sword.

It makes us blind and causes us pain
It turns the tender heart to stone
It promises a future it can't contain
It could have been a blessing but it leaves us alone.

Love is a lie and I will not fall
So I'll wrap my heart in a cocoon
And rise from its ashes like a phoenix.

FASHION IS IMPORTANT

Nowadays, fashion is an integral part of our lives. It plays a significant role in how we present ourselves to the world and how we interact with others.

On one hand, fashion is important because it is a way of communicating our personality, mood and emotions to the world. For instance, a well fitted suit can make a person feel more confident and powerful, while colourful dress can make a person feel more cheerful and energetic. In addition, fashion is also a way to express creativity. It allows us to experiment with different styles, colours, and patterns, and create a unique look that reflects our personality.

On the other hand, fashion can be a disadvantage because it's expensive. Many people feel pressure to keep up with the latest trends, which can be costly. Additionally fashion can create unrealistic beauty standards and often promotes certain body type and look. To illustrate, people who may be exposed to an unrealistic body image shown on billboards, social media. Runways or in magazines may lead to body image issues and eating disorders as people may feel pressured to conform to these standards.

To conclude, fashion plays an important role in society. In my opinion, people shouldn't be influenced by everything they see on the internet as it isn't difficult to deceive people.

...10 MINUTES JOURNAL...

A note to my English Teacher

Dear Ms. Samidha, I've always liked your teaching style. It's like a love and hate relationship. You are a marvelous teacher but also notorious for your stackful of homework everyday. Students usually hate homework but love your passion and your unique way of teaching.

S. M. Amirul – 7A

The Moon

A serene, ethereal, mystical friend you feel so close to yet so far away from. The beauty, the gentleness, the peace it holds cannot be related to any other. When the hope is lost and anguish absorbs the dense air, the floating savior of space practically enlightens the road to shore. Even with no voice or expression, the moon assures you and consoles you like no other.

Oh the moon, the gratefulness for you can't be expressed enough.

Yusra Zahid – 7B

Animals

If one hasn't loved an animal a part of one's life remains unawaken. These four legged species are such great friends they pass neither comments nor criticism. Animals are our whole life but they make our life a whole which makes them completely different from humans.

Mossamat Saba – 7B

The Sounds I like best and why

The vibrations of delight sound kiss your eardrums and sooth the mind. They remind you of blissful flashbacks and memories. When I hear the words of truth from the "Quran" nothing stops me from following the traces of my emotions. Fears burst out, bad memories go out. The words of the Almighty help through palpitations and rough times. As your ashes come back into reality by admiring the sound of placidness.

SCHOOL DEVELOPMENT PLAN AND SELF-EVALUATION FRAMEWORK (REVIEW SESSION)

Our Head Teacher Ms. Agnes Nathaniel, conducting a review session on School Development Plan and Self-Evaluation

Framework as it is almost the end of the academic year and we need to review all our tasks and have to develop a new SDP for the forthcoming year. It was an interactive session, where teachers were questioned on different standards in the SDP and SEF.

The session was very informative, especially for new teachers as they are also part of the committee to analyze the result, feedback and work on the areas of development.
